

The Gannochy Trust Clinical Research Suite is located at the far end of the Outpatient Department at Perth Royal Infirmary. To access the Gannochy Suite follow signs for the General Outpatient Department, from the front or rear hospital entrance. From the Outpatient Reception area (no need to report to this reception) follow signs to the end of the corridor for the Gannochy Suite.

Car parking at Perth Royal Infirmary is free of charge, however you must obtain and display a ticket from the parking meters within the car parks. As the car parks are always busy it is advisable to leave time before your appointment for parking your car.
